2017 Employment / Volunteer Disclosure Statement

Current Status: NOT AUTHORIZED
(No Disclosure On File)

Complete 2017 Disclosure

If you do not complete the Disclosure Statement, you will not be authorized to referee any 2017 games involving youth players.

US YOUTH SOCCER KIDSAFE PROGRAM

The US Youth Soccer Kidsafe Program is a program to foster safe circumstances of every person, and especially every child, who participates in a US Youth Soccer affiliated activity. It is the intent of US Youth Soccer and its affiliated organizations to exclude from participation in US Youth Soccer activities, at a minimum, all persons who have been convicted of crimes of violence or crimes against persons.

Every person wishing to apply for a position as a coach or program administrator with US Youth Soccer or an affiliate must complete an employment/volunteer disclosure statement. In addition, every employee/volunteer of US Youth Soccer or any of its affiliates who at any time could be expected, in the performance of his/her duties, to be alone with any registered player for any length of time must have on file a completed disclosure statement.

- Your state administrator manages which referees are eligible for background checks.

9. For the background check, you will need to confirm your full name, and respond to the questions.
10. Type in your full name and today's date under Electronic Signature.
